The Allina Health 4th Annual Spine Consensus Conference is designed to educate providers in the management of patients with back and neck pain. The morning key note speakers will discuss the transforming landscapes of pain management and employers role in working with health systems. The breakout sessions will provide education on multiple topics including: the role of medical spine care, integrative medicine, indications for injections and surgery including advanced imaging and myth busting, the psychology of pain, and refreshers in the role of physical therapy and chiropractic care as front line spine providers.

CONFERENCE OBJECTIVES:

- Examine the changing landscape of spine pain management and gain understanding of current best practice
- Improve the management of patients with chronic back and neck pain through patient education, appropriate referrals, and alternative treatment options.
- Refresh and gain knowledge and understanding of the role of various spine specialties in including PM&R, PT, Chiro, Integrative Medicine, interventional spine, and spine surgery.
